Disclaimer / understanding

Mindful of the informal nature of the intersessional briefings and the goal of stimulating full and frank discussion, the following understandings will apply: it is understood that discussions, including among panelists, in no way prejudice the positions of Member States or any other session participants. It is further understood that any comments or questions presented by session participants, including Member States, do not imply a view or position of Member States or other session participants. It is also understood that presentations are provided solely for the consideration by Member States, and are not themselves sources of input to the zero draft or subsequent drafts.
